

Circular walks – Brynrefail (SH493873)

Please see the map below

1. Lligwy Beach – Brynrefail

Take the coastal path northwards from the car park. At 'Porth Y Môr' turn left up a field to join a track, on reaching the lane turn right. Shortly turn left up a field, to the right of a farm house and buildings, through a gap turn to the right following the field boundary over the hill, passing a pond at the top. Continue to descend to a house and entrance to caravan site, turn right onto the lane then right at the kissing gate, follow caravan site boundary and turn right over stile by new farm building. Follow the path bearing left down the hill to the main road. The Celtic Cross you can see is the Morris brothers monument. Turn left up to Brynrefail.

2. Brynrefail – Bodafon Mountain

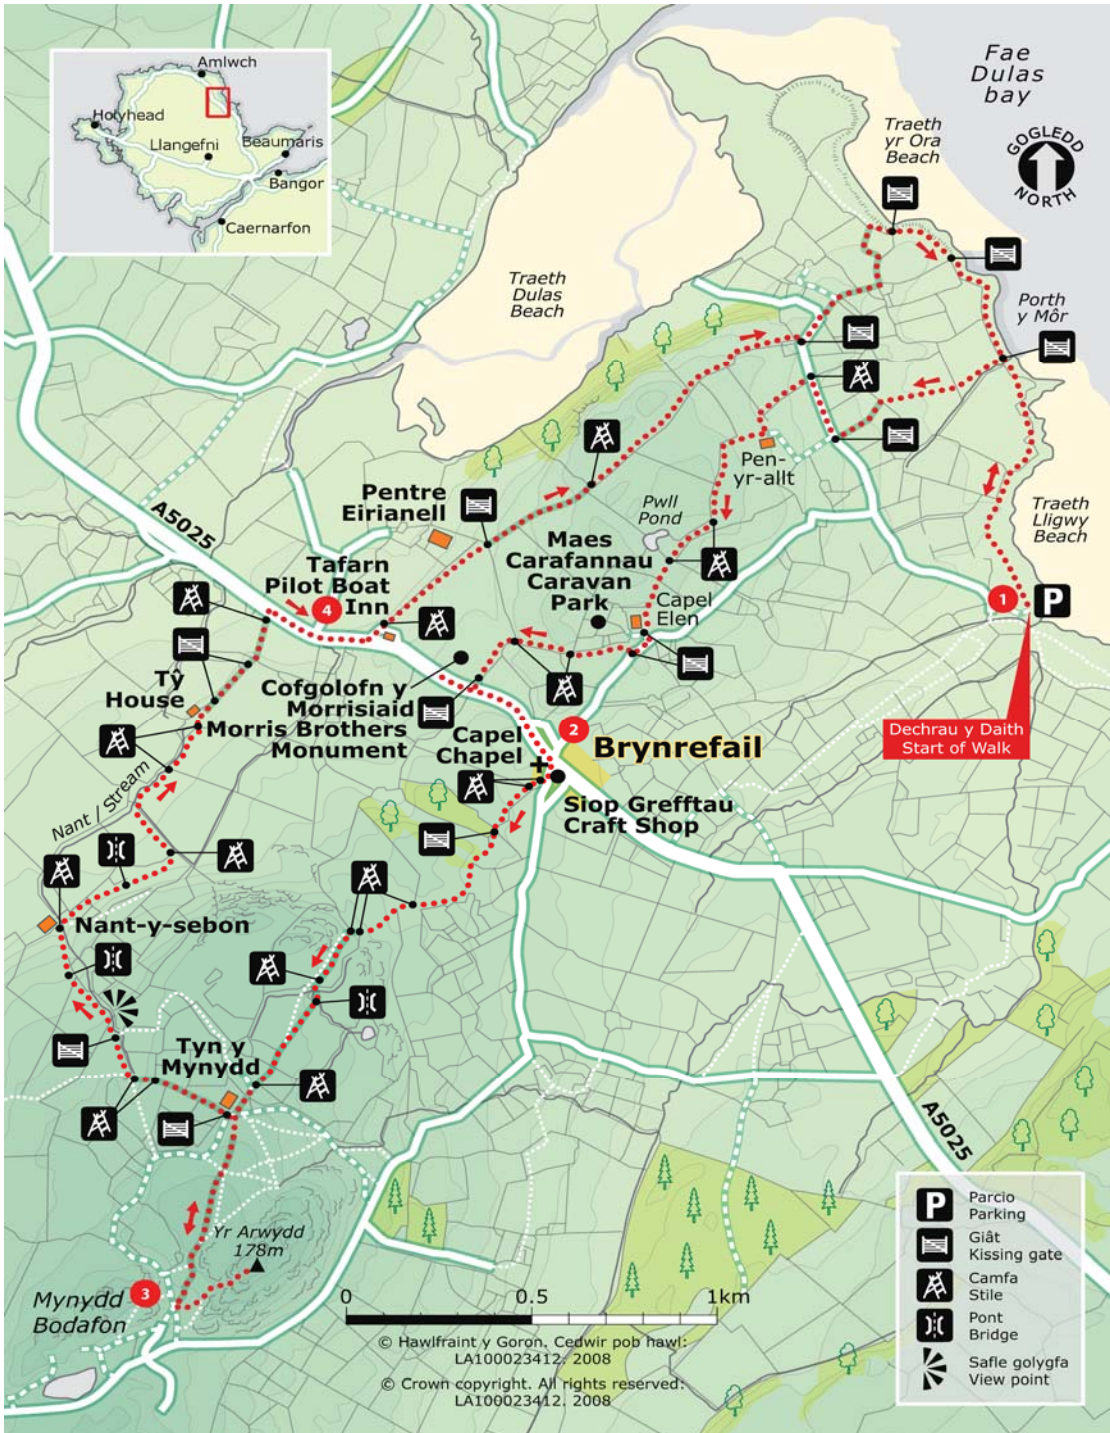

Turn right at Brynrefail, between the Craft Shop and the Chapel. Very shortly turn right into a small field. After a stone stile, cross the fields and pass through a kissing gate, continue uphill to join a wide path. At a stream bear right, uphill over a number of ladder stiles. Pass through an area of gorse, over a bridge and through a large field heading towards Bodafon. You will come out by some houses at Tŷ'n Y Mynydd. At a junction in the paths take the way-marked path straight ahead. After passing around the base to the far side of 'Bodafon Mountain' a well-worn path leads you to the summit.

3. Bodafon Mountain – Pilot Boat Inn

Re-trace your steps back to the junction in the paths at Tŷ'n Y Mynydd. Turn left before the White Cottage down the hill. Bear right after a number of fields and with a spectacular view of Dulas Bay proceed down the hill. After a steep section into a valley you will pass the ruined 'Nant Y Sebon'. Bear right and pass through a marshy area. Then zigzag left, then right, to follow a stream. Pass a house, go down a track, cross a field, to come out on the main road. Crossing with care, turn right and walk up to the Pilot Boat Inn.

4. Pilot Boat Inn – Lligwy Beach

Go over the stile at the Pilot Boat Inn and up the field. 'Pentre Eirianell' is on your left, join a track, leading to fields passing a pond on the right, follow the field boundary, bear right after some gorse to come out onto a lane. Turn left down the lane then right on a sharp bend, down a track, following signposts to the coastal path. You will come out at Traeth Yr Ora. Turn right and follow the coast back to Lligwy.

Whilst every effort has been made to ensure that all information is correct at the time of publication, no liability can be accepted for errors or omissions.